

Executive Assistant Fire Chief Ronald L. Martin, MS, EFO, CFO
Fort Myers Beach Fire Department

Executive Assistant Fire Chief Martin has served in fire and emergency medical services since 1992, with the support of his wife Rose and three children. Over the course of his career Chief Martin has served several communities in the Greater Chicago area to include the City of South Bend, Indiana and the University of Notre Dame.

Chief Martin received designation as a Chief Fire Officer (CFO) from the Center of Public Safety Excellence, has obtained the National Fire Academy's Executive Fire Officer Designation, and he holds a Master Degree in Homeland Security and Emergency Management from Long Island University. He also holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Management with an emphasis on shifting organizational culture, an Associate of Science Degree in Fire Science Technology, and is a Florida State Paramedic.

Chief Martin currently serves as the Executive Assistant Fire Chief of the Support Branch which encompasses the Office of the Fire Marshal, organization health, safety, and wellness programs, communications, facilities, information technology, fire plan examination and permitting, public relations and information, and community risk reduction efforts.